FLORIDA'S NATURE ARTISTS WITH CHRIS FASOLINO

3:30 PM • PNC COMMUNITY ROOM • VERO BEACH, FL

Join author and art history instructor Chris Fasolino as he introduces Florida's Early Nature Artists. We will learn about an English country squire turned adventurer; a Pennsylvania Quaker who traveled south and canoed across a lake of alligators; and an aristocratic Frenchman who called himself "the American Woodsman." Mark Catesby, William Bartram, and John James Audubon were great nature artists who explored Florida. These are their stories. Admission is free. RSVP Required.

APR

GET TO KNOW OYSTER BAR MARSH, IRLT'S NEWEST TRAIL!

9:30 AM • OYSTER BAR MARSH • VERO BEACH, FL

Join IRLT staff and volunteers for a private peak of Oyster Bar Marsh, which is IRLT's newest partnership trail with Indian River County. Along the way, we will catch glimpses of the Lagoon between the mangroves fringing the shoreline. We'll also keep our eyes open for manatees and dolphins at the Lagoon overlook. RSVP Required.

RSVP is appreciated for all activities.

Please call (772) 794-0701 or email RSVP@irlt.org to reserve your spot today!

Thank you for your support of the Indian River Land Trust and the Ladies of the Lagoon!
